

Wildwood Park Reservation Cancellation Policy

Effective January 1, 2015

Reservations that are less than three days (72 hrs) of their arrival date will not be refunded and cannot be moved.

Cancellations that are made three days (72 hrs) prior to arrival can be refunded, but will be charged a handling fee equal to a one night stay of the reservation.

Campsite Reservations can be moved one time at no additional charge provided a three day (72 hr) notice is given. Must be moved to within six months of original reservation. (If check-in is Friday, notice must be given before Tuesday at 1pm)

No changes or cancellations can be made on reservations made inside three days of arrival.

No show campers will not be issued a refund, and are not eligible to have their reservation moved.

Season Camping Pass holders that cancel a reservation three days prior to arrival will be refunded all the rewards points of that reservation. Cancellations made less than three days prior to arrival will lose one night's worth of rewards points.

Pavilion Reservations will not be refunded unless a thirty day notice is given.

Refunds will not be given due to weather, all cancellation policies still apply.
