

COURT REPORTER FEES DUE

A hearing has been scheduled in your domestic relations case. At the beginning of the hearing, you will be expected to comply with the following provision of the Court's Automatic Standing Order which was previously provided to you:

(F) Court Reporter. All conferences, hearings and jury trials will be taken down and recorded by a court reporter, and each party shall be responsible for payment of one-half of the reporter's take down charge, unless the judge orders otherwise. The take down charge is $43.31 per hour ($21.66 per hour per party). If you do not have an attorney, you should be prepared to pay the court reporter in cash, credit card, or debit card in court on the day of the hearing. If you request a transcript of any proceeding, you must notify the court reporter directly and promptly pay, in advance, the court reporter's charges.

If your attorney has an account with the Court Reporter, the charge can be made via your attorney and you will be allowed to settle the account with your lawyer at a later date. Otherwise, you will be expected to comply with the Court at or before the beginning of the scheduled hearing.

FAILURE TO BE ON TIME MAY RESULT IN YOUR CASE BEING HEARD WITHOUT YOU OR YOUR CASE
COULD BE DISMISSED
